

PROFESSIONAL ATHLETES DISABILITY INSURANCE

LOSS OF VALUE

Professional athletes have spent their lifetime preparing for the big leagues.

Draft Protection covers the athlete up until the date that they sign with the professional league. Benefits are designed to cover the athlete during the college/developmental years.

Loss of Value covers an athlete as they are getting close to the point of resigning their professional contract. An ACL injury in the last year of their current contract could result in a reduced amount for future years.

Career Ending protection is used when a player's contract is not fully guaranteed. In some sports, a player can be waived at the end of the season and their multi-million dollar contract is then deemed worthless.
